

Finding a Primary Care Provider in Nova Scotia - February 2019 Snapshot

69,223

Nova Scotians

have found a family practice since November 2016

Approximately

7,900 people

found a family doctor or nurse practitioner in the first month of 2019

51,845

Nova Scotians

are on the Need a Family Practice Registry, as of February 1, 2019

This represents

5.6% of the population

Monthly activity

In January 2019

7,924 people

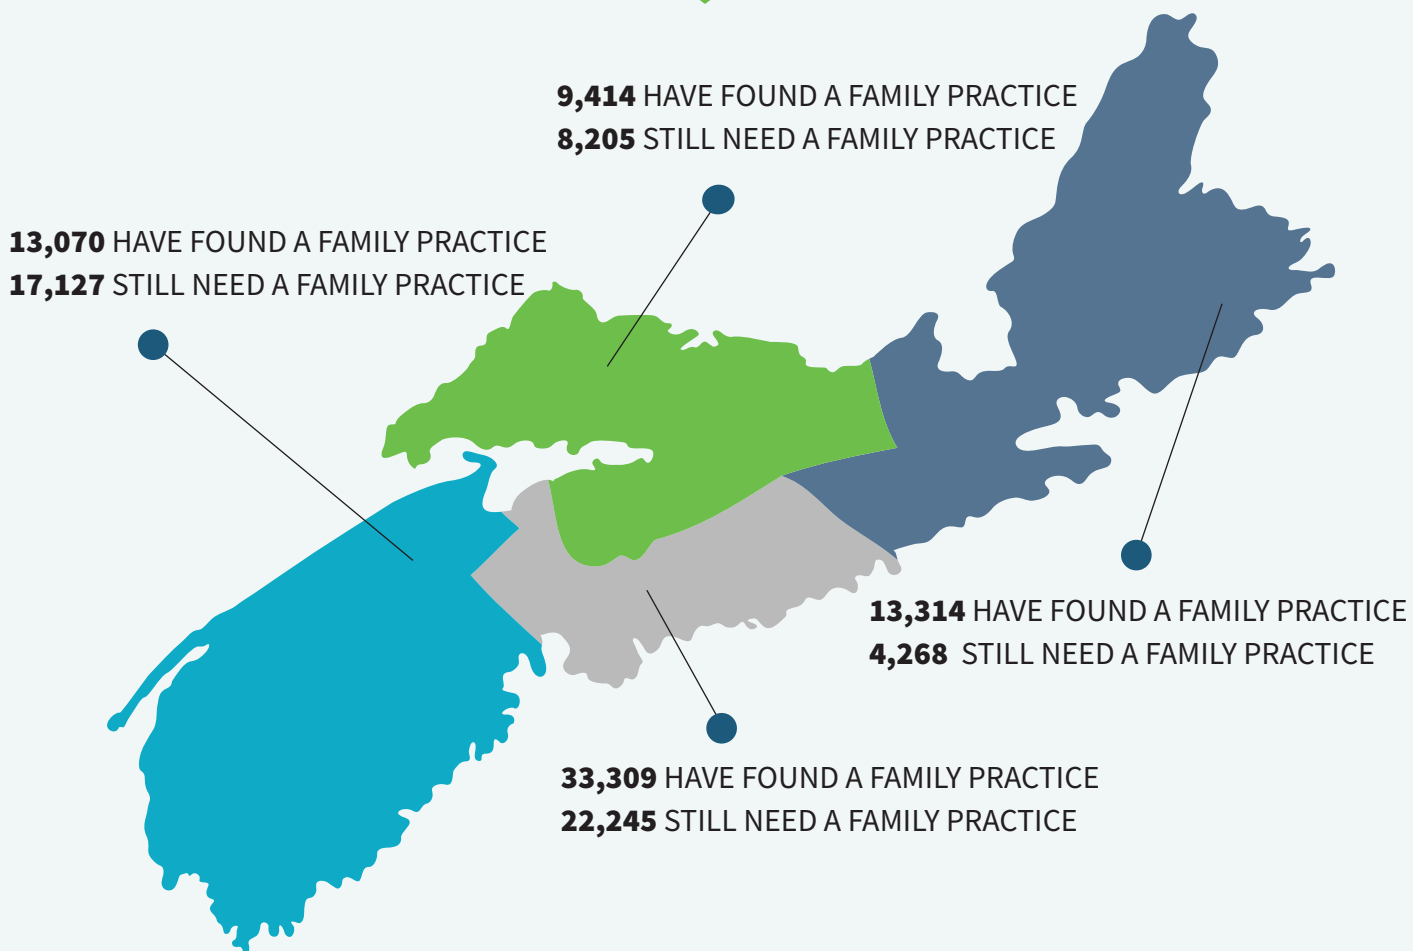

found a family practice

In January 2019

3,569 people

added their names to the registry

Total number of Nova Scotians by area

+ 116 people who found a family practice, unknown community