Walking 2 to 3 times each day is very important for your mental and physical health.

Try to walk to the bathroom and in the hallway as much as you can during your hospital stay.

Your health care team will tell you what type of assistance you should have while walking. Check the whiteboard in your room or ask your nurse for more info.

Try to sit in your chair or on the side of your bed for all your meals.