

How often will I have an MRI scan?

- All patients starting or switching disease modifying drugs get an MRI 6 months after starting.
- Future MRIs will be scheduled by your neurologist and depend on a number of factors including what disease modifying drug you are taking and how you are responding to that drug.
- If you are not on a disease modifying drug, your neurologist will determine how often you need to have an MRI scan.