

EXPERIENCE THE EAST COAST OUR WAY

WELCOME TO CENTRAL ZONE

Central Zone living is the best of both worlds: the hustle and bustle of big city life with the charm and personality of a small town. From Halifax-Dartmouth to Windsor-West Hants, there's no shortage of fun for all ages to participate in. Shop 'til you drop, hike, bike, or swim--you're never far from a metropolitan centre or a coastal getaway. Do you like to end your workday with a refreshing surf in the ocean? Or maybe you'd prefer to indulge in a great plate of surf'n'turf. In Central Zone, you can have it all. For more information on what Nova Scotia has to offer, visit www.novascotia.com

WORK & PLAY

ABUNDANT OPPORTUNITIES

Central Zone is home to several hospitals and facilities including the Nova Scotia Hospital, the East Coast Forensic Hospital, three community hospitals.

The QEII Health Sciences Centre takes care of adults from across Nova Scotia, the Maritimes and Atlantic Canada. Specializing in heart health, cancer care, neurosurgery and organ transplantation, it's also a leading research and academic centre for care professionals. We're at the precipice of major change in care delivery at the QEII Health Sciences Centre. After many years of planning, the future of the QEII Health Sciences complex is taking shape through the QEII New Generation project.

HALIFAX-DARTMOUTH

Just a bridge or ferry ride away from each other, these twin cities offer equally stunning views, top-rated dining experiences, professional sports teams, shopping centres, and more.

EASTERN SHORE

Prefer to take a trail a little off the beaten path? Eastern Shore is home to gorgeous wilderness, endless stretches of sandy beachfront and authentic fishing villages.

WINDSOR-WEST HANTS

Being the "birthplace of ice hockey" is just one of Windsor's many claims to fame. Come for the history, stay for the lovely people and iconic attractions.
