

Financial Matters

Getting sick can be stressful in many ways. For some people, being sick has a big impact on their finances. Knowing your options and understanding how they work can help.

What are Short Term Illness (STI) and Long Term Disability (LTD)?

STI and LTD can help protect you from losing your income if you get sick and cannot work. You might have STI and LTD as part of your employee benefits package. You also might have STI and LTD as part of your insurance plan. If you have STI and LTD, it will replace part of your regular income if you are unable to work because you are sick. Remember to ask for your coverage details from your employer or insurance provider so you know:

- What you are entitled to.
- When you can receive benefits.
- What paperwork you need to do.

Depending on your policy, you may also need to apply for Employment Insurance (EI) Sickness Benefits or Canada Pension Plan (CPP) Disability.

Can I get help from Employment Insurance (EI)?

EI provides temporary help to people who have lost their jobs or cannot work.

EI pays Sickness Benefits for up to 26 weeks. You must submit a medical form when you apply. Your doctor must fill in this form, <https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/ei-sickness.html>.

For more information call toll-free 1-800-206-7218 or visit:

<http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/ei/menu/eihome.shtml>.

What is the Canada Pension Plan (CPP) Disability Benefit?

The CPP Disability Benefit covers anyone between the ages of 18-65 years. You must have made enough contributions to the CPP throughout your life and have a sickness or disability that stops you from working on a regular basis. The sickness or disability must be severe and last for a long period of time.

For more information call toll-free 1-800-277-9914 or visit: www.servicecanada.gc.ca, click on “Canadian Pension Plan (CPP) and Old Age Security (OAS), then choose Canada Pension Plan Disability Benefits.

There is a special application process for persons with a terminal illness. If you feel this may apply to you, talk with your Cancer Patient Navigator, Cancer Clinic Social Worker, or Nurse.

What is Income Assistance (IA)?

IA helps people who need financial help. IA gives those in need a basic amount of money to pay for food, clothing, rent and utilities like heat and electricity.

To get IA, you must be unable to pay for your basic needs and have tried all other options. You can still apply for IA if you have applied for EI or CPP to receive help during the waiting period.

If you qualify for IA, you may also be able to get help with some “Special Needs” such as childcare, transportation for medical appointments, emergency dental care, eyeglasses, etc.

For more information and how to apply please call toll-free 1-877-424-1177 or visit:

https://novascotia.ca/coms/employment/income_assistance.

If you feel you have tried all options and are still having trouble meeting your financial needs, a Social Worker or a Cancer Patient Navigator may be able to help:

- Halifax area: call the Psychosocial Oncology Self Referral Line 902-240-8129.
- Sydney: contact the Social Worker at the Cape Breton Cancer Centre at 902-567-8551.
- Yarmouth (Tri-Counties): contact the Social Worker at 902-740-1704.
- South Shore (Lunenburg/Queens Counties) or the Valley (Annapolis, Kings, and West Hants): contact the Social Worker at 902-599-2945.
- Antigonish area: contact the Social Worker by calling the Oncology Department at St. Martha’s Regional Hospital at 902-867-4500 ext 4993.
- Cumberland, Colchester and Pictou Counties: contact the Social Worker at 902-397-3125.
- To contact a Cancer Patient Navigator in your area, please call 1-866-524-1234.

Prepared by: Nova Scotia Health Cancer Care Program

NSHCCP4024 © May 2025 Nova Scotia Health Authority

This pamphlet is for educational purposes only.

It is not intended to replace the advice or professional judgment of a health care provider.

If you have any questions, please ask your health care provider.