

Roseway Hospital

Roseway Hospital serves a population of approximately 13,000 people in Shelburne County, including the Town of Shelburne, Municipality of Shelburne, Town of Lockeport, Town of Clark's Harbour and the Municipality of Barrington.

Inpatient beds include 12 medical beds and seven alternate level of care beds. Approximately 188 employees provide the following programs and services:

Programs and services:

- Ambulatory Care Clinic
- Mental Health & Addictions outpatient services
- Continuing Care
- Diabetes Education Centre - Diabetes Education Nurse & Outpatient Dietitian
- Diagnostic Imaging
- EKG
- Emergency Department
- Environmental Services
- Laboratory Services – outpatient blood collection
- Nutrition and Food Services
- Pharmacy
- Palliative & Supportive Care -Palliative Care & Social Worker
- Public Health
- Rehabilitation Services

Visiting specialists:

Roseway Hospital also works in partnership with visiting physicians and specialists who provide a variety of services, including:

- Obstetrics/Gynecology
- Internal Medicine
- Hearing & Speech
- Respiratory Therapist
- Ophthalmologist
- Cardiovascular clinic Registered Nurse
- Ear, Nose, Throat (ENT)

Shelburne Collaborative Family Practice

The Shelburne Primary Health Care Centre opened in 2019 and is home to the Shelburne Collaborative Family Practice team, which consists of: Physicians; Nurse Practitioners; Family Practice Nurses; RN Diabetes Centre; Dietitian Diabetes Centre; clerical and administrative employees.

August 2022